

Director of Congregational Learning

Description:

Effective July 1, 2008
Director of Congregational Learning
Congregation Beth El
Norwalk, Connecticut

Vibrant Conservative synagogue with nearly 300 families seeks a full time, energetic and creative professional who is eager to be part of an education team and welcomes the challenge of developing and shaping a new community based education center.

Qualifications:

- Strong background in Jewish Education
- Minimum of 2 years experience in the teaching and administration of a 100+ student Jewish Supplementary or Day School
- Knowledge of child development and learning styles
- Strong interpersonal skills, team building and leadership qualities
- Demonstrated experience with innovative and non-traditional curriculum development and implementation
- Strong administrative, organizational and management skills
- Experience in recruiting, training and mentoring staff and lay leaders
- Performing arts or musical background desirable
- Masters degree in Education or Jewish Education desirable
- Camp experience a plus

Salary: $75K+ depending upon qualifications and experience. Benefits. Synagogue housing is an option.

To Apply:

Send your application by March 14, 2008 to: Congregation Beth El, 109 East Avenue, Norwalk CT 06851; email to office@congbethel.org or fax (203) 629-6055.

Visit the Congregation Beth El website for the fuller job announcement at <http://congbethel.org/> and follow the link: New Beth El Educator Position Created.”